ARMS FOR PATRIOTS.

Another Filibustering Expedition Reaches Cuba in Safety.

SECOND LARGEST EVER LANDED.

The Cargo Valued at $78,000, Consisting of Rifles, Machetes, Rapid-Fire Guns and Ammunition—Sixty-Two Cubans Accompanied It—A Proposition to Purchase Cuba—Other Cuban War News.

WILMINGTON, N. C., May 31.—The Messenger prints a detailed account of the loading of the tug Alexander Jones and her departure with the schooner John D. Long of a Cuban filibustering expedition. The facts were obtained from a member of the crew of the Alexander Jones, which returned to port several days ago. His story substantially is as follows:

On Thursday night, May 18, the Jones took on a cargo of rifles, machetes, rapid-fire guns and ammunition at the wharf of the Wilmington, Newbern and Norfolk railway, in the southern limits of the city. Before she had entirely finished her cargo a report was started that officers were approaching and that the revenue cutter Morrill was getting up steam. Taking alarm at this the Jones pulled up and started out at 10:40 a. m. and crossed the bar and anchored outside.

The schooner John D. Long, having meanwhile been loaded with coal and other material at the Wilmington and Weldon railroad wharf, was shortly afterwards towed out to sea by the tug Jacob Brandon, going past the revenue cutter Colfax. On the schooner was General Nunez and another officer of the Cuban army, a Cuban pilot and Captain John O'Brien, of the filibustering tug Dauntless. At the sea buoy they went on board the Jones, anchored nearby, and Captain O'Brien took charge of the expedition. A hawser was made fast from the Jones to the schooner, and early Friday morning the tug steamed to the south with her tow. The Jacob Brandon returned to Southport.

On the way down the coast no port was entered, but off Palm Beach, on the coast of Florida, 22 Cubans were taken on board. The Jones then towed the schooner to the Bahamas, and in the vicinity anchored in the open sea on Tuesday, May 18.

On Thursday morning, May 20, the filibuster Dauntless hove in sight and came alongside the Jones and the schooner. She coaled from the schooner took a cargo of arms from the Jones and with Captain O'Brien in command headed for the Cuban coast about 60 miles away. She left the Jones between 8 and 9 o'clock Thursday night, made a successful landing in Cuba near Matanzas and after an absence of 24 hours exactly, returned to the Jones, took another cargo of war material and started for Cuba Friday night. On the last trip General Nunez and the 62 Cubans left the Jones and went on board the Dauntless and accompanied Captain O'Brien.

When the Dauntless left with her second cargo the Jones coaled from the schooner, towed her off Cape Canaveral, Fla., and turned her loose. She sailed back and got into Southport yesterday morning.

The cargo carried out of here was valued at $78,000, and is said to have been the second largest ever landed in Cuba.

The member of the crew above referred to says there is no truth in the story that the Jones was chased and fired on by a Spanish war vessel. The Jones never saw the smoke of such a war vessel while on her trip.

PALMA RECOGNIZED.

The Cuban Delegate Unofficially Received at the State Department.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—For the first time a representative of the Cuban junta has been received at the state department.

Senor Tomas Estrado Palma, head of the Cuba junta of New York, chief delegate in the United States of the Cuban government, called at the department.

Secretary Sherman, in extending the invitation to Senor Palma, was obliged to do so unofficially, and to receive him as an American citizen. The president was also "unofficially" aware of his visit.

The proposition that the Cubans buy the island was discussed by Secretary Sherman, Assistant Secretary Day and Senor Palma. It was indicated by Senor Palma that the insurgents are willing to purchase their freedom at a reasonable price. A full understanding prevailed that the necessary funds could be easily secured to float the bonds whenever Spain agrees to enter into negotiations looking to a sale of Cuba. The sanction of the junta was given to the proposed institution of correspondence having in view the relinquishment of control in Cuba by Spain for a monetary consideration. The amount which the Cubans are willing to pay, if discussed, was not divulged.

REPORT ON THE RUIZ CASE.

Consul General Lee Sends Dispatches By a Mysterious Stranger.

HAVANA, May 31.—The commission conducting the inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the death of Dr. Ruiz closed its labors at an early hour Saturday. A mysterious messenger from Washington came from Tampa on the steamer Mascotte Saturday morning, but did not land.

Mr. Fishback, secretary of the commission, accompanied by Consul General Lee's son, went on board the steamer before he sailed and held a brief consultation with the stranger, and it is supposed that they delivered to him the report of the commission and other highly important dispatches from Consul General Lee and Mr. Calhoun, who was selected to investigate Dr. Ruiz's death.

CENSORSHIP DISPATCHES.

HAVANA, May 31.—Captain General Weyler went from Tunas to Jucaro on Friday, but returned to Tunas yesterday.

The insurgents dynamited a passenger train between Santa Clara and Esperanza. The baggage car was capsized and the locomotive and three passenger cars were derailed, but no lives were lost.

NO FEARS OF A WAR.

Turkey's Arming Has No General Significance.

GREEK GOVERNMENT SATISFIED.

There Is No Fear That Either Bulgaria or Servia Will Abandon the Policy They Have Followed Thus Far—Turks Acting Suspicious Near Lamia Cretan Trouble Not Yet Settled.

LONDON, May 31.—The Athens correspondent of The Times says: "Turkey's continued arming and reported Russian preparations, with other rumors of a bellicose character, raise the hopes of some of the Greek newspapers that Greece may yet benefit from a general European war. But the majority of the nation, absorbed by a sad experience, is only desirous that Europe should protect Greece against her conqueror."

"There is no reason to fear that either Bulgaria or Servia will abandon the policy they have followed thus far. The Turkish troops who have been sent to the Servian and Bulgarian frontiers are only intended to replace those who were withdrawn just before the war began."

"The reports of alarming anti-dynastic troubles, published abroad, cause surprise here, as there is no sign of any such movement, nor is any prominent politician likely to commit himself to an anti-dynastic program."

"It appears that the Prince of Wales has expressed his personal desire that the Crown Prince Constantine should come to London for the jubilee festivities, and this is regarded as indicative of English good will toward Greece."

TURKS ACTING SUSPICIOUS.

King George Urges the Emperor of Russia to Intervene.

ATHENS, May 31.—Dispatches from Lamia report forward movements of a suspicious character by the Turks.

Major General Nelson A. Miles arrived Saturday at Lamia, visited the Greek lines, and subsequently lunched with Crown Prince Constantine.

King George paid a visit to M. Onon, the Russian minister, Saturday, and after a two-hours' interview sent a long telegram to Emperor Nicholas urging him to intervene on behalf of Greece.

CONSPIRACY AGAINST KING GEORGE.

LONDON, May 31.—The Berlin correspondent of The Daily Mail says: "From a Russian source comes news of a conspiracy against King George of Greece far more deeply rooted than was supposed. There is indubitable evidence that Premier Ralli and his colleagues in the cabinet are gravely implicated in a plot to overthrow the dynasty."

MORE TROUBLE IN CRETE.

LONDON, May 31.—A dispatch to The Times from Canea, island of Crete, says that armed Mussulmans made a sortie from Candia Saturday night and burned the village of Kalivia, killing 14. The dispatch adds: "This is certain to have serious consequences as it will incense the Cretans who will make reprisals."

DEATH ON A CROSSING.

Four Children Killed and Four Others Injured, Two of Them Fatally.

DENVER, May 31.—At three o'clock yesterday morning a spring wagon driven by Henry Marsau, a carpenter, and containing eight children, ranging in age from 3 to 9 years, was struck by a special train on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, and as a result four of the children are dead and the others are terribly injured, two so badly that they will die.

Marsau, with his three children, had been spending the day at the home of Christopher Schoneweiss, in the southern portion of the city. When ready to start for home, he took a load of children, gathered up in the neighborhood, for a short ride.

It is claimed by the police that Marsau was intoxicated and paid no attention to the signals of the engineer, but drove upon the track while the train was in plain sight and but a few feet away. The engine struck the wagon demolishing it and crushing and mangling the children in a horrible manner.

The dead are:

Elsie Marsau, aged 3.

Otto Schoneweiss, aged 5.

George Banker, aged 5.

Ette Speaker, aged 9.

The fatally injured are:

Alfred Marsau, aged 7, badly mangled.

Willie Banker, aged 3, crushed and internally injured.

Eddy but not fatally hurt:

Emily Marsau, aged 5, leg broken.

Bertha Schoneweiss, badly bruised.

Henry Marsau, the driver, sustained a severe scalp wound.

EX-CONGRESSMAN BOYD DEAD.

He Came Within One Vote of Being Governor of Illinois in 1872.

LEWISTON, Ills., May 31.—Ex-Congressman Thomas A. Boyd died at his home in this city Saturday night, aged 67 years. Judge Boyd was born in Pennsylvania June 30, 1830, and came to Illinois in 1856, locating in Lewiston.

Captain Boyd was elected to Congress in this (the Ninth) district in 1876, defeating George A. Wilson, of Peoria. He was re-elected to Congress in 1878 by a greatly increased majority, after which he declined to again be a candidate.

In 1888 Judge Boyd was stricken with paralysis, and since that time has been an invalid.

He came within one vote of being governor of Illinois in 1872, when he was defeated by Governor Beveridge for lieutenant governor on the ticket with Richard J. Oglesby, who was afterward chosen United States senator.

SERVING HIS SENTENCE.

The Logansport Bank Wrecker in the Ohio Penitentiary.

COLUMBUS, O., May 31.—Just one week from the date of his arrest by the United States authorities, charged with defalcations that aggregate $500,000, the doors of the Ohio penitentiary Saturday night at 10:15 clanked behind John F. Johnson, the Logansport bank wrecker. He was brought from Indianapolis by Deputy United States Marshal Jerry C. Foley, and upon his admission was assigned to Cell I, Range I and Corridor I, in Block K and L.

When escorted into the guard room and searched he was self-collected, dapper as ever, and polite to all. The mental struggle he endured was not evidenced by facial expression. He talked pleasantly to Warden Coffin, Captain Landenberger and the guards, and when led back to his cell in the new hallway he remarked that whatever else the newspapers might say, he was sure they could not call him a coward.

He was faultlessly clad in a dark business suit and appeared a model of neatness. Deputy Marshal Foley stated that Johnson read the Bible the greater part of the way from Indianapolis. The rest of the time chatted about the crops and pointed out what he termed inaccuracies in the newspaper reports of his crime.

He told Foley that in 1883 he began gambling in stocks on the boards of trade of Chicago, Detroit and Toledo. He did so for the purpose of getting out of a debt that he had assumed for his father. Deputy Foley states that Johnson's little girl, aged 11 years, knows nothing of her papa's misfortune, and has only been told that he has had to go away to stay a long time.

It was only when Johnson took from his pocket the picture of his little girl and kissed it that he showed signs of emotion. According to the rules of the penitentiary he will, with good behavior, as a result of his 10 years' sentence, serve just six years and four months.

His cell is in what is known as "Banks' Row," where all the noted bank wreckers are confined. It is understood that within two weeks Johnson will be assigned to a clerkship in the warden's office.

THE NEW SUGAR SCANDAL.

Editorial Opinion of Legislation, Now Pending, For Trusts.

Is the country to be afflicted with a second sugar scandal? Are the "Senators from Havemeyer" ex-officio members of the finance committee, and are they to be permitted to dictate the important sugar schedule?—Chicago Evening Post (Ind. Rep.)

The Senate committee's bill, whether designed to do so or not, will give the trust a great advantage should it become a law. For that reason the country is bitterly opposed to the Senate sugar schedule, and if the Senate will heed the voice of the people that schedule will not be embraced in the new tariff.—Indianapolis Journal (Rep.)

The storm over the sugar schedule is steadily increasing. All the examinations which have been made since its report, instead of clearing it up, only make it look the blacker. It has apparently been made of a very complicated character to baffle analysis and to disguise a job, but, intricate as it is, it does not conceal the fact that it embraces a very large differential for the benefit of the trust. This conviction is universal, and it is aggravated by the stories of personal profit in connection with it.—Philadelphia Press (Rep.)

The specific charge by a responsible newspaper in Chicago that three members of the Senate speculated in the secrets of the committee rooms after the sugar schedule on the Senate tariff bill had been framed, and profited $30,000 by the transaction, is altogether too serious to be treated by the Senate with contempt or indifference.

The peculiar influence which the magnates of the sugar trust have exerted in the framing of the new sugar schedule has already created suspicions as to the integrity of the framers of the bill. If the charge against the alleged speculators shall not be investigated, it will serve to strengthen, if not confirm, this suspicion.—Philadelphia Bulletin (Rep.)

THE MASS MEETING.

Robert Green, of Bracken, the Choice of Mason County
For Clerk of Court of Appeals.

Resolutions Pledge Renewed Support
Chicago Platform and Denounce
Traitorous Legislators.

The Democratic mass convention at the court house Saturday afternoon was called to order promptly at 2 o'clock by Chairman Alexander, of the Executive Committee, who stated briefly that the object of the meeting was to select delegates to represent this county at a State convention to be held at Frankfort June 2nd to nominate a candidate for Clerk of Appeals.

On motion Mr. John C. Lovel was unanimously elected Chairman. Mr. Lovel thanked the convention for the honor, and added that though "slightly disfigured" in the recent primary he wanted it understood he was still a staunch Democrat; that he was born a Democrat and would remain one as long as he lived, and that he could always be counted on for every nominee of the party. His remarks were applauded with a vim.

Mr. Thomas D. Slattery was chosen Secretary, with Mr. J. Elgin Anderson, of the Dover News, and M. F. Marsh, of the BULLETIN, as assistants.

On motion of Hon. Charles B. Poyntz, the Chair was authorized to appoint a committee of three to select delegates to the State convention. The Chair named Mr. Poyntz, Mr. Arthur Fox, of Dover, and Mr. A. D. Dickson, of Orangeburg, as said committee.

While the committee was out, the following resolutions were presented by Judge Thomas R. Phister and adopted without a dissenting vote:

Resolved, That we, the Democrats of Mason County, in convention assembled, do hereby renew our allegiance to the principles of Democracy as set forth in the platform adopted by the Democracy at the Chicago convention in July, 1896, and pledge ourselves to their earnest support.

That we condemn those members of the last Legislature who were elected as Democrats but who deserted the nominee of the party for United States Senator and thereby aided in the election of a Republican Senator from Kentucky.

That we sincerely regret the defeat of that true Democrat and incorruptible statesman, J. C. S. Blackburn, for re-election to the office he has so worthily held.

That the delegates of this convention to the State convention at Frankfort June 2nd be and they are hereby instructed to vote for Hon. Robert Green for the nomination as Clerk of the Court of Appeals as long as his name may be before the convention, and to use all honorable means to secure his nomination, and to vote as a unit on all questions before said convention.

That the delegates attending in person on said convention shall alone be authorized to cast the vote of Mason County.

The committee reported the following delegates to the State convention:

Jno. W. Alexander,	E. L. Worthington,
Samuel Stairs,	G. S. Wall,
Wm. Hawes,	M. J. McCarthy,
L. W. Robertson,	J. C. Jefferson,

Jas. Rowe,	James Key,
T. A. Keith,	J. M. Frazee,
Jno. C. Adamson,	W. W. Melvin,
John Hord,	W. H. Thomas,
Henry Burgle.	Andrew Ring.

The report was adopted, after which the convention adjourned.

Reports from the conventions throughout the State show that Green leads on the instructed vote, but has not enough to give him the nomination. Fleming, Bracken, Robertson, Lewis and Nicholas, in addition to Mason in this Congressional district, instructed for him. He has 148 instructed votes, Shackleford 136.

Li Hung Chang has issued an edict sanctioning the loan of the Belgian syndicate for the construction of a railroad from Paoliang-Fu to Hankau.

Ford 105, Richardson 131½, Mason 88½ and Watson 85.

The convention at Frankfort Wednesday promises an interesting fight. The total vote in the State convention is 1,094.

Rumor That Dr. McClung Has Skipped to Canada.

Portsmouth Times: "The Kentucky court for the Maysville district convenes in Maysville next week. The case of Dr. S. T. McClung, formerly of this city, will come up for trial before this court. The doctor, it will be remembered, tried to beat a Maysville bank out of several hundred dollars. It is not likely that McClung will ever show up, and will forfeit his bond. His conviction is sure and a long penitentiary sentence stares him in the face. An East End gentleman received a letter from McClung recently in reference to a business matter. The letter was written in Omaha, Neb., and mailed in St. Paul, Minn. This gives some foundation to the rumor that McClung has skipped the country and is now in Canada."

DECORATION DAY.

Over the Graves of the Nation's Dead Flowers Were Strewn.

The Memorial Exercises at the Cemetery Attended By a Very Large Crowd. Maj. Wood's Address.

"Cover them over, the Blue and the Gray; Deck them with garlands of roses to-day; Once in the carriage they lay side by side; Once for their firesides they valiantly died. Cover them over, those heroes of ours, Cover them over with beautiful flowers; Deck them with garlands, those heroes of ours And cover them over with beautiful flowers."

The Decoration Day exercises at the cemetery Sunday afternoon attracted one of the largest crowds ever present on a like occasion.

The day was almost an ideal one, and it is estimated that 2,000 or more people from Maysville and vicinity assembled in the "silent city of the dead," bringing beautiful flowers to strew the graves of the departed heroes and loved ones.

The exercises at the cemetery were under the auspices of Jos. Heiser Post, G. A. R. Major John Walsh acted as master of ceremonies. Forty-five little girls represented the various States of the Union.

Having assembled about the Soldiers' monument, patriotic hymns were sung and there were other exercises.

Later the crowd adjourned to Dieterich's Grove, where the address of the day was delivered by Major A. T. Wood, of Mt. Sterling. Major Wood was introduced by Mr. Thomas A. Davis, and talked for an hour or so. He spoke from manuscript, paying a touching tribute to the brave ones who fell during the late struggle and those who have since joined them in "the silent cities of the dead" scattered throughout the union.

BURNED TO THE GROUND.

Residence of Mr. Elasha Moran in Charleston Bottom Destroyed Sunday.

Caught From a Defective Flue.

The residence of Mr. Elasha Moran, south of Broshears' Station, Charleston Bottom, was destroyed by fire between 12 and 1 o'clock Sunday.

The building was the old Moran homestead and was a large two-story brick, with a two-story frame ell.

The fire started in the ell from a defective flue, and had gained such headway before discovered that all efforts to save the building were unsuccessful. The walls are all that was left of the structure.

The building was occupied by Mr. Moran and his tenant, Mr. J. F. Raebenacker. The former was not at home, and most all of his clothing except what he was wearing at the time was lost. Mr. and Mrs. Raebenacker also lost most of their clothing. Mr. Raebenacker and the neighbors succeeded in saving most of the furniture, carpets, &c.

The loss is placed at about $2,500 or $3,000. Mr. Moran had about $1,000 insurance on the building in the Farmers' Home Mutual of this county.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

Old Crop Higher Last Week—But Little Competition Between Manufacturers.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company in its circular for the week has the following:

Old tobacco sold higher this week, and quite a number of holders took advantage of the fact and disposed of these goods. We think it good judgment to do so while the sales are light and new tobacco scarce in the market.

Tips, red and color tobacco were all in good demand and may be quoted strong at last week's quotations. Very common goods are no better and the finer grades are not offered in sufficient quantities to make quotations, but they would sell higher, however, if the buyers had confidence in their keeping order.

There is but little competition between manufacturers on the breaks, but a better speculative demand than we have noticed for some time.

Offerings were light during the week and bids generally accepted, with only a small proportion of rejections. Receipts are increasing and are about as large as the actual sales, so that there will probably be no reduction of stocks.

We have no additional news with reference to the probable quantity of tobacco to be set out this season, but, as stated before, there is every reason to believe that there are not nearly such preparations making as last year, and the crop will, of course, be much later. Considerable setting, however, has been done this and last week.

The man who stands idly by and sees the life fading out of his wife's face, sees her health going, sees her becoming old and faded and wrinkled when she should still be in the perfect enjoyment of vigorous, useful health, is either less than a man or else does not know of the one remedy which will bring her back to health and strength. Perhaps her husband cannot persuade her to go to her doctor, because she naturally dreads the inevitable "examination" and "local treatments." He can persuade her, if she needs persuasion, to take Dr. Piero's Favorite Prescription. This truly wonderful medicine has cured hundreds of women after the best physicians have failed. It has been in constant use and tested every day for thirty years. It isn't an experiment, there are no chances about it. It is a certain cure for all derangements, weaknesses, irregularities and displacements of internal organs peculiar to women.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died at his home in Murphysville on May 10, 1897, Buffington Forman in the nineteenth year of his age.

Such was the sad and sudden news heard by the many friends of Buffington Forman, death so sudden and terrible to us all, how terribly must it have been to his fond parents, sisters and brothers to see him go forth that beautiful afternoon in perfect health and a few hours later to be carried into their presence cold in death, his cheery voice hushed forevermore. Truly we see that in the midst of life we are in death.

But he was always calm, was a young man of noble character and with a sunny disposition, made friends wherever he went—old and young were his friends. To him nothing seemed sweeter or more soothing than the unconsciousness of having done some favor or kindly act toward his companions. He was the life of his crowd, and always of evening ready to plan some amusement in which he always took an active part. In removal of such a life from the world leaves a vacancy and a shadow that is deeply realized by his host of friends. But time the great healer comes and applies his soothing balm to our wounded hearts and we take up the burden and say, "He doeth all things well," and cherish in memory every act, word and deed of the departed friend, and thus I feel to-night, and thinking of his flower-bedecked grave, bring up the old poem of "Never thought an humble tribute to the memory of one, who was to me a kind friend." His remains were taken to Shannond, Ky., and laid to rest in the beautiful little cemetery after a lovely tribute was paid to his memory by Rev. Redden who officiated at the obsequies.

And with faith in the future we saw him tenderly laid in his last resting place, not only thinking, but believing with the heart,

"We shall sleep, but not forever,
There will be a glorious dawn,
We shall meet to part, no never;
On the resurrection morn."

From the deepest caves of ocean,
From the desert and the plain,
Coutless throngs shall rise again.

We shall sleep, but not forever,
In the lone and silent grave;
Blessed be the Lord that taketh,
Blessed be the Lord that gave.

In the bright eternal city,
Death can never, never come;
In his own good time he calls us,
From our rest to home, sweet home."

UNDoubtedly A MURDER.

A Wealthy Cincinnati Merchant's Body Fished Out of a Lake.

DETROIT. May 31.—The remains of John Koller, were found in Swan Creek, just below Newport, Mich., with a bullet hole in the head. Henry Lafountain, a fisherman, made the ghastly discovery and at once notified the authorities. Upon investigation it proved undoubtedly a murder, as the ball had entered the back of the head, coming out of the mouth and splitting the tongue in its passage. The shot had evidently been fired at close range.

The murder theory is still further strengthened by the fact that the body was bruised about the chest and abdomen, and there was a wound on the head that appears to have been inflicted by a blunt instrument.

Koller left home Wednesday night, May 6. He wired his wife from Hamilton, Ont., that he had gone away on business, but would be home that evening.

The following Thursday morning a letter written at the Wayne Hotel, Detroit, was received, containing four $50 express money orders, and stating that the writer intended to go to Buffalo and place himself in charge of the sisters.

Friday a letter postmarked Cleveland was received by Theodore J. Moeller containing receipts for $100, a gold watch and chain, a diamond pin and three rings, all of which had been sent by Koller to Moeller per express. It was learned that Koller arrived at Cleveland Thursday morning, but returned again to Detroit on the same steamer. He registered at the Hotel Wayne after supper, but said he changed his mind and would return to Cleveland again. He did not use his room. It is believed that he had from $1,200 to $1,500 on his person. Employees on the boat said he seemed very strange.

Theodore J. Moeller arrived from Cincinnati yesterday and immediately positively identified the body as that of his father-in-law, John Koller, the missing Cincinnati merchant. He will take the remains home. Mr. Moeller feels certain that Mr. Koller was murdered. He says that the dead man's business and family relations were entirely pleasant.

It seems that after leaving Cincinnati May 5, Mr. Koller came to Detroit by steamer from Cleveland. The last time that he was known to have been seen was when he disembarked in Detroit on the morning of May 7.

V.GILANCE RELAXED.

Another Break Has Occurred in the Levee Just Below Baton Rouge.

NEW ORLEANS. May 31.—A crevasse resulting from over confidence and relaxation of vigilance occurred at 6 o'clock yesterday morning at the levee at Conrads Point, four miles by rail below Baton Rouge on the east side of the Mississippi river. At 2 o'clock yesterday morning information was received at Baton Rouge that the levee at Conrad's sugar house was leaking badly and that a crevasse was likely to occur at any moment.

There had been a feeling of almost perfect security throughout that section and the thought of a crevasse had not entered into the calculation of things likely to take place. There were no laborers within call as they had all been discharged and sent to their homes. The levee authorities at Baton Rouge hastily gathered together a force of men and placing them on barges of material which happened to be anchored along the front of the Burton sawmill and by 4 o'clock a tug was towing the barges of men and material to the scene of the accident.

At 6 o'clock, shortly before the barges arrived at the plantation, the levee burst with a loud report, and the water in a stream forty feet wide and seven feet deep poured through the breaks and spread rapidly over the fertile lands in the vicinity. The officials of the Pontchartrain levee district and of the Illinois Central railroad are on hand with large forces of men and unlimited supplies of material, and will no doubt succeed in closing the break before any very serious damage is done to the adjacent plantations.

Two Young Men Kill Each Other at a Church Gathering.

SWEETHOME, Tex. May 31.—The neighborhood was assembled at Salem church, eight miles from here, yesterday, in observance of Decoration Day. Two young men, Will Lewis and Wit Bosworth, were among the number. Bad blood existed between them, too much talk being the cause. They walked away from the crowd together and stopped after going some distance, appearing to talk the matter over very calmly. One turned as if to leave, when the other drew a revolver. The other wheeled and both fired about the same instant and continued until their revolvers were empty.

Both were dead when their friends got to them. Every bullet fired by each man took effect in his opponent. Lewis was shot three times through the body and once through the arm. Bosworth was hit twice in the head, twice in the body and once in the leg. The duel could have been prevented, but every one thought when they walked away that they were likely to patch up their troubles, and as this was desired they were allowed a clear field.

A Jealous Girl's Deed.

MONTPELIER, Vt., May 31.—Miss Mildred Brewster, the daughter of a wealthy farmer of Huntington shot, probably fatally, Miss Annie Wheeler, of whom she is alleged to have been jealous. The deed was committed in a lonely spot on the outskirts of this city. After shooting Miss Wheeler the Brewster girl turned the revolver on herself, inflicting a serious and possibly fatal wound.

MONTPELIER, Vt., May 31.—A folding bed in the Union House closed automatically during last night while Henry Kendall, aged 63, was asleep in it. He was dead when taken out, having either been smothered or died of heart failure induced by fright.

A Wonderful Blind Pianist.

SIGNOR ARTURO NUTTINI is a blind pianist who is not a freak, but a player of remarkable ability. He was born in Florence 38 years ago and became totally blind in his first year, but he now plays the most difficult rhapsodies of Liszt, sonatas of Beethoven and other classical compositions with wonderful technic and expression. While Padewski and his contemporaries play Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsodie No. 6," one of the most difficult compositions, in a transposed key, Signor Nuttini plays it in the original key—six sharps.

The way Signor Nuttini learns his pieces is curious. He has a little machine, consisting of a flat metal board, in which there are tiny grooves, over which he fits a sheet of thick paper, and, with the aid of a little ruler and awl, perforates all his music in a peculiar manner as his interpreter reads it from the regular staff. No music is too intricate for him to copy, and often after once copying the composition he can play it without first running his sensitive fingers over the perforations.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Murdered by Robbers.

WARREN, O., May 28.—Isaac J. Hill, a farmer living at Farmington, was murdered Saturday night by burglars. Hill lived with his aged mother. The robbers broke into the house, and after binding and otherwise maltreating the old woman they went up stairs where Hill slept. They first clubbed Hill over the head and then shot him. There were evidences in the house of a terrible struggle, which goes to show that Hill made desperate resistance. So far as known the robbers got nothing, as Mrs. Hill says there was no money in the house. There is no clue to the murderers.

Decoration Day Snowstorms.

MILWAUKEE. May 31.—Many points in Michigan and Wisconsin experienced the novelty of Decoration Day snowstorms yesterday. At Menominee, Mich., it snowed at frequent intervals all day, some times quite hard. At Bayfield, Wis., sufficient snow fell Saturday night to cover the ground, and the thermometer dropped to 30. At Oshkosh, Wis., snow fell yesterday morning and at noon the thermometer registered the lowest in many years at this season.

Drowned in a Tank.

AEBOTT, Tex., May 31.—Mrs. Fannie L. Barr, her 4-year-old babe and her sister, Miss Mattie L. Alexander, aged 14, were all drowned in a tank near the house. The boy was playing in the shallow water and inadvertently stepped off into a deep hole in the center of the tank, and the ladies were drowned in trying to rescue the little fellow.

Condense of Victory.

NEW YORK. May 31.—The big strike of garment makers has entered upon its third week. About 2,500 operators whose employers have signed the new agreement have returned to work, leaving about 22,400 still on strike in this city and vicinity. Leader Meyer Schoenfeld says that there is many omens of success for the strike and expresses himself as satisfied that the operators will not return to work under the old conditions.

Thrown From a Carriage.

PLEASANTVILLE, O., May 31.—As Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Friend were driving a spirited horse, it shied suddenly, overturning the carriage and throwing the occupants down a steep embankment. Mr. Friend was seriously bruised and Mrs. Friend received a broken collarbone and serious internal injuries.
